

BRYAN TO MEET TAFT AT DINNER OF CHICAGO MEN

Candidates Will Be Guests
Oct. 7 of the Association of Commerce.

WILL BE A BIG AFFAIR.

Several Governors and Prominent Men From All Over the Country Will Be Present.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—William H. Taft and William J. Bryan, rival candidates for the Presidency of the United States, will meet at Chicago on Oct. 7 at a banquet given by the Chicago Association of Commerce, according to an announcement made here today by W. D. Moody, business agent of the association.

The speeches will be non-political. In addition to Mr. Bryan and Mr. Taft, it is expected that some eighteen Governors of States and a number of Congressmen and Senators will be at the banquet.

Mr. Taft's acceptance was obtained at Cincinnati recently when a committee of prominent members of the Association of Commerce, accompanied by a Committee of the Deep Waterways Commission, which will begin a three-day session here on Oct. 7, called on the Republican candidate.

Mr. Bryan agreed to be present during a long telephone conversation which he held last night with Norman E. Mack, chairman of the Democratic National Committee. Mr. Bryan was called from his bed at 1 A. M. at Terre Haute and the matter of the invitation discussed. The Democratic leader accepted an acceptance, and Mr. Moody was today notified of the fact.

The coming together of the two men at present looms largest in the public eye was made possible by the Deep Waterways convention, at which from three to five thousand delegates are expected to be present. As this movement, as well as the Chicago Association of Commerce, is non-partisan, it was felt that the occasion was an excellent one of the meeting of the two candidates. In extending both invitations the non-political motive of the banquet was emphasized, and it is believed that both Mr. Taft and Mr. Bryan will confine their remarks to waterways and possibly business matters. It is hoped to secure the attendance of J. Pierpont Morgan, president of the local organization left here today for New York to call upon the financier.

Mr. Moody declared this afternoon that he had searched the records in vain for a previous instance of a meeting of two of the leading Presidential candidates during a campaign.

"PUSHCART KING" ACCUSED OF FRAUD

Schwartz Is Charged with Doing Wholesale Business in Licenses.

Sigmund Schwartz, of No. 107 Forsyth street, president of the Pushcart Peddlers' Association, was arrested this afternoon on a warrant issued by Magistrate Walsh, at the request of the District Attorney's office. According to Assistant District Attorney Rosler, Schwartz is guilty of systematically defrauding the city during a long period of years.

Evidence upon which the arrest is based was unearthed in the investigation of the License Bureau by the Commissioners of Accounts. The specific case against Schwartz is that he obtained a license from the city without paying for it and sold it for $4. It is alleged that he has been dealing in licenses wholesale, selling them to aliens who are not entitled to them. After his arrest Schwartz was examined by Deputy Commissioner Wood at Police Headquarters. It is expected to obtain evidence from him upon which to prosecute those who make it possible for him to deal in peddlers' licenses.

HARRIMAN STARTS HOME.

Magnate Leaves for New York After Chicago Conference.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—E. H. Harriman and party arrived in Chicago today, thus completing a tour of Western railroads in which Mr. Harriman is interested. During his stop in this city he conferred with various officials of the Harriman railway system.

The conferences are said to have been of a routine character. They took place on Mr. Harriman's private car while it was being switched from the Northwestern to the Lake Shore Railroad. Mr. Harriman departed for New York at 10 A. M.

Repetition Brings Recognition

If one person tells you he saw an elephant jump over a wood pile, you might doubt his word. But wouldn't you stand up and take notice if several persons told you the same story?

That's about the difference between a one-day and a seven-day World advertisement.

AN Accumulation of Evidence Tells the Most Convincing Story

PARSONS CANNOT DELIVER SOLID VOTE TO HUGHES

Several District Leaders Notify Him That They Will Oppose the Governor.

The New York City delegation to the Republican State Convention will be split on the renomination of Gov. Hughes. Several of the Manhattan district leaders, headed by Joseph Levinson, of the Second, have notified President Herbert Parsons, of the County Committee, that under no circumstances will they or their delegations vote for the Governor.

In many Brooklyn districts, the same bitter hostility prevails. The result will be that part of the city votes will go to Speaker James W. Wadsworth, Jr., or Senator Horace White.

Mr. Parsons has influenced a majority of the leaders to rally to the support of the Governor. He said that the primary test vote last Tuesday convinced him that the sentiment was stronger for Hughes than against him. That fact, reinforced by President Roosevelt's wishes, which Mr. Parsons always follows implicitly, caused him to line up for the Governor.

Mr. Parsons firmly believes that, despite opposition, the Governor will have a comfortable majority in the convention, and that after the first ballot has been taken a motion to make the nomination unanimous will prevail.

Just how many votes in the city will hold out in opposition the leaders have not been able to decide as yet. The assembly district conventions, to go through the form of electing delegates already picked out by the bosses, will be held to-night.

The caucus of the county delegations will be held Monday night in Saratoga to count noses.

WOODRUFF LEADS MARCH TO SARATOGA

Machine Men Admit Hughes Has Inside Track for Renomination.

The big leaders of New York City Republicans went to Saratoga today to make ready for the State Convention that assembles Monday afternoon. State Chairman T. L. Woodruff led the group that went out of Grand Central Station on the morning train. Herbert Parsons, the county chairman, followed with another delegation in the afternoon.

It was admitted by all the leaders that the renomination of Gov. Hughes appears inevitable, although it is probable that two or three other names will be presented to the convention.

Interest among the machine politicians now chiefly centers in the making of the remainder of the ticket. James Wadsworth, Jr., Speaker of the Assembly, is being considered for Lieutenant-Governor. Job E. Hedges, of New York, is on the list for Attorney-General. Former Attorney-General Julius M. Mayer has announced positively that he will not be a candidate for that office.

In Democratic State politics indecision over the candidate for Governor still continues. State Chairman Parsons left town this morning for Rochester, without having had an understanding on the subject with Tammany "Boss" Murphy.

Mr. Parsons is strong for Lieut.-Gov. Chanler and is reported to be inclined toward W. Cary Ely, of Buffalo, who has a big "base" and is connected with all sorts of financial corporations.

ROCKEFELLER HONOR GUEST.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 11.—John D. Rockefeller was the guest of honor at the Early Settlers' Association meeting yesterday. The catalogue of the association shows that Mr. Rockefeller settled in Cleveland in 1855. Before leaving his contributed liberally to the finances of the organization.

BRYAN WILL TALK HERE NEXT FRIDAY

William J. Bryan will make a speech next Friday evening in Carnegie Hall. Admission will be without ticket, except for the boxes and platform seats. The first of the faithful in line will get front seats.

After much confusion, arrangements for Mr. Bryan's invasion of New York State were completed today. He peaks in Camden and Trenton, N. J., Tuesday, Sept. 15, and sleeps in his private car that night in the Jersey City railway yards.

At 8:45 A. M. Wednesday, the car will be attached to a regular West Shore train and taken to Rochester, where it is due to arrive at 6:22 P. M. The train will stop at various stations along the line, but about the only place there will be opportunity for speech-making are Newburg, Kingston, Utica and Syracuse, where five-minute waits are scheduled.

Mr. Bryan will leave Rochester at midnight and arrive in Grand Central station this city Thursday morning at 9:12. After a hasty conference with local leaders, he will hurry to Delaware, where he sails Friday for his Carnegie Hall speech.

The following Sunday Mr. Bryan will be at Exopus, as the guest of Alton B. Parker.

HOLACUST RECALLED BY INDICTMENT OF WOMAN.

READING, Pa., Sept. 11.—A warrant was issued here today for Mrs. Harriet E. Munroe, of Washington, D. C., owner of the copyright of the entertainment, "The Scottish Reformation," which was given in Rhode's Opera House at Boyertown last January, when 21 persons of the 40 present were burned to death. Mrs. Munroe was not present, but it is alleged that she employed incompetent help which led to the disaster. The prosecutor is Frank Moyer, who lost a daughter in the fire. Mrs. Munroe's attorney here asked to accept service, and the case will go before the Grand Jury next week. Dr. Thomas J. B. Rhoads, owner of the opera house, is already under arrest for criminal negligence.

MILLION BALLOTS IN LAST HOURS OF CONEY'S CONTEST

Canvassers Swamped With Votes for King and Queen of Carnival.

Hall King Progress and hail his fair Consort, Queen Prosperity! The election is over. The people of Greater New York have spoken. They have determined who is the most popular man, and which is the loveliest woman in the five boroughs, and chosen them to reign as King and Queen of the Revels at the Isle of Joy all next week. Nearly 2,000,000 ballots cast from The Evening World and inscribed with the names of the favorite of the voters have flown into the mammoth ballot box—nearly 1,000,000 of them coming in a perfect avalanche in the last day of the election, checked only by the closing of the polls yesterday at noon.

The Board of Canvassers began its work immediately, fair hands and nimble fingers counting the votes, and other fair fingers marking down the results. They worked all night. It was an awful job, for there were nearly a thousand candidates, an Erie ones and the two had to be written down as well as the thousands and the work is still going on. By to-morrow it will be finished, and the result will be printed in the Evening World.

The names of King Progress and Queen Prosperity will be announced. First, the votes received by each of them, and by their competitors. Then the names of the candidates who have been hustling for six weeks for their respective candidates may see the result of their labors.
